DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 33-65 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 31-62 of copending Application No. 10/597,940 in view of US Patent No. 6,342,125. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the only difference in the claims is the manner in which the different layers or plies are joined, i.e., the second layer is formed on top of the first layer in the current application, while in the co-pending application the second layer is formed and joined to the first layer while is still wet. However, the different ways in which the webs are joined are very well known in the art and within the pervious of one of ordinary skill in the art, see for example column 1, lines 34-44 of US Patent No. 6,342,125.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

A Terminal Disclaimer was received on June 28, 2010, but it was disapproved for the following reasons:

37 CFR 1.321 (c)(3) requires that a TD "Include a provision that any patent granted on that application or any patent subject to the reexamination proceeding shall be enforceable only for and during such period that said patent is commonly owned with the application or patent which formed the basis for the judicially created double patenting." [Emphasis added]

The words "legal title" do not include common ownership as to equitable title.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments, see amendment and request for consideration, filed August 4, 2009, with respect to the prior art rejection have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) of claims 33-65 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 33-65 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) Double Patenting rejection, set forth in previous office action and repeated in this Office action.

5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: applicants arguments filed on August 04, 2009 are convincing. The combination of prior art does not teach nor fairly suggest the pulsating and non-pulsating dewatering mechanisms in a multi-layer/multi-ply web/system

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
